Practice Areas

Complex Litigation

Frank Gonzales is a seasoned litigation paralegal with 20 years of experience supporting attorneys and trial teams in all aspects of case management including discovery, trial preparation, and database management. Frank also has extensive experience managing and mentoring paralegal staff, recruiting lateral attorney hires, and conducting law firm revenue analysis.

Frank has been the lead paralegal on many high-stakes cases involving wrongful termination, discrimination, failure to maintain, landlord/tenant disputes, wage and hour violations, breach of contract, and copyright and trademark infringement matters. He has substantial trial experience involving complex litigation, multi-district litigation, and class actions, and is highly proficient in numerous litigation support applications including Concordance, Summation, Westlaw, Lexis, Sanction and Trial Director.

Frank received his paralegal certificate from UCLA Extension and is currently enrolled in UCLA Extension's certificate program in Human Resource Management.

Outside of the office, Frank enjoys playing soccer, fine dining and international travel. He volunteers his time with Project Angel Food.
